

Chi Phi Bonds

Words by
E. T. Wells
Xi Chapter

Music: Annie Lisle
H. S. Thompson

1. Sa - cred as the laws of heav - en, Truth that can - not die,
Ev - er pure and un - pol - lut - ed By dis - hon - or's stain,

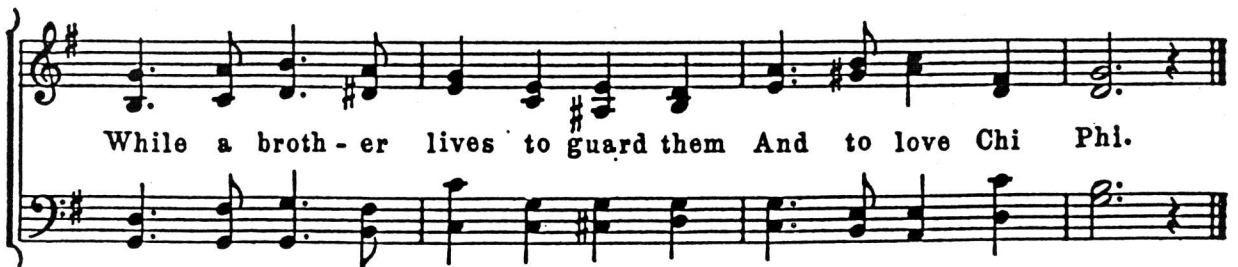

Warms to love in ev - 'ry bos - om That hath known Chi Phi.
Hearts must throb with ho - ly friend - ship, 'Round her sa - cred flame.

Chorus

Yes, we love the bonds fra - ter - nal; May they nev - er die

While a broth - er lives to guard them And to love Chi Phi.

2.
Men have seen their brightest visions
Fade like morning dew;
Women found their hearts' best idols
Fickle and untrue.
Ours be it to rear a fabric
Far beyond the sky;
Lasting as the lights of heaven,
Our own loved Chi Phi.

3.
Crown with chaplets, all unfading,
Flowers rich and rare,
This our best and sweetest offering,
Growing everywhere.
Age shall hail it in glad tidings,
Youth shall swell the cry.
Heaven bless the bonds fraternal
Of our own Chi Phi.