THE CHI PHI's, contrary to appearance, were not ambushed at Fall Carnival; they displayed the prizes given by the ticker tape machine of their booth, "Stock up for Charity," co-sponsored by Sigma Kappa. Peggy, the chapter's Doberman Pincer, shared the mock agony. A dream, strived for since 1961, became a reality when the Chi Phi's trooped from their home on Third Street to a new chapter house on North Jordan. Roman togas set the "Mood Italiene" for their Roman Holiday dance. Hoping to duplicate last year's homecoming honors, the Chi Phi's again entered competition with their slogan, "A Salvo Will Shoot Those Beavers Through and Through."
